An opportunity to study the Bible in a relaxed countryside setting and to build fellowship and friendships with men of all ages.

St Mary’s men of all ages are going away for a weekend of fun and fellowship with practically applied Bible teaching in comfortable surroundings.

The weekend starts with dinner on Friday 1 March but if you are available during the day there will be an opportunity to go for a local walk or cycle ride. The weekend will finish after lunch on Sunday, 3 March and we will be home by late afternoon.

We are staying at CIM Moor Hall in Cookham, which is located on the river Thames. The Centre is ideally situated to visit local National Trust properties, wander along the Thames Path or visit the historic towns of Marlow and Windsor.

All rooms are doubles for single occupancy (no sharing) with an en-suite bathroom.

The cost is £200.

This includes:

- Excellent Bible teaching.
- Two night’s accommodation.
- All meals provided by Moor Hall.
