

1 Corinthians 11:17-34

1. The issue: the haves and the have-nots (vv.17–22).

2. The answer: Jesus became a have-not (vv.23–32)

3. The significance: become a have-not (vv.33–34)

Reflection questions:

1. Where might we use the church as an opportunity for self-advancement?
2. How does the example of Jesus giving his life challenge this?
3. What might it look like at St Mary's to reflect the self-giving nature of the cross in everything we do?
