

1. God can be trusted because he delivers (21:1–7)

a. When it seems impossible

b. In his timing

2. God can be trusted because he provides (22:1–11)

a. Abraham as a model of faith

b. Abraham's reason for faith

c. Our reason for faith

Questions:

1. How does Abraham's example of faith compare to our own? What might it look like to reflect his faith in our lives?
2. How does knowing that God "did not spare his own son" for us encourage us to trust him wholeheartedly?